Edward Hammond. The lie of Satan and this world is that having stuff, committing sin, and living like someone else will make us happy and content. Proverbs4,12,14, Excellent advice for thinking about the world and people around us from God's perspective. Oh yes! This is so important to Him that He designed creation in such a way that our blessings are completely contingent on us following this model. MyhusbandandIreadthisdailydevotionaltogetherforThis should lead us to assume that they strayed from the Scripture.
