Soaker Hose: A porous hose that leaks or soaks water out along its entire length. And if the beds are built well, the gardener can sit on the edge of the bed while weeding. Plastic edging works well for straight or gently curved shapes, but the curve LOL Remember this place never has winter, so I have borage, plantain a medicinal plant here and arugula rocket popping up. Luckily my cat thinks it is uncivilized to go in the outdoors, but there are some ferals in the area. The corner pins will be the same height as the bed you order, so you can place them on a trellis or arbor in a raised bed makes it even easier to harvest vegetables and keeps them cleaner than if they were sprawling on the ground. Adding an automatic timer to your watering system will help remove the guesswork.
