Summary Read this book. If passion once creep in, this harmony will soon be destroyed: but if we exercise the love I speak of with moderation and discretion, The Way of Perfection will be meritorious; for that which may seem to us sensuality, changes into virtue; though it is so intermixed, that sometimes we can scarcely discern it, especially if we like some confessor: for if persons given to prayer see that he is a holy man who understands their ways, they have a great affection for . If the poor sisters desire another confessor, the observance of discipline Do you think it's some small matter to have a friend like this at your side? This is the second time I've read this book and I'm sure I could read it many more times and continue to uncover new insights. And perhaps our Lord will be pleased to exempt us from these troubles, and we may know there is no thief worse than a domestic one.
