If you are currently studying for some type of vocational ministry, or if you believe it is possible you may be looking for a new ministry position in the near future, I would urge you to consider owning or writing a confession of faith. We believe that the Holy Spirit, a divine person, applies to the heart the truths of Holy Writ with which He cannot be in disagreement.

First, we are responsible for renewing our minds. That the authority of Scripture is the authority of God. We believe that man, who is personally and directly responsible to God, is called to determine himself freely and definitely his eternal destiny down here on earth, by the spiritual position which he shall have taken during his earthly life and in the clearness of the lights that have been accessible to. With an exhortation to minister to people. I hope you will take the time about 30 minutes to read through the Confession. As we talked about the fact that faith is connected with our vision.
