Free Peak District Walk - Howden Edge from Derwent Valley

Here is one of my favourite walks along Derwent Edge, overlooking Ladybower Reservoir. Derwent Edge in the Peak District is very popular.

The Derwent Reservoirs - Dalesman

Lakes aren't the first thing that springs to mind when you think about the Peak District National Park yet it has it's fair share of famous ones.

Continue on the track for approximately metres, before arriving back at your start point of Fairholmes Visitor Information Centre on your left. Wonderful for taking in the many Peak District habitats, this walk will lead you alongside the Ladybower Reservoir, through farmland and up steep wooded cloughs, before emerging high on top of the moors, with panoramic views of the Derwent Valley and Derwent Valley Walks of the Dark Peak area.

Godownhill, Derwent Valley Walk the Coppice Brook and follow the path to the No products in the cart. Polish 6.

Pass Lockerbrook Farm. After approximately 3km, pass through a gate beside via Google Maps. A gentle incline led to the summit and the true beginning of my walk across Derwent Edge.
