This is a very character driven story, and I loved that so much, but some major plot points just felt like they took too long to get going. I felt trapped at the bottom of a swimming pool, immobilized. What are you longing to hear spoken or named--what do you think God is longing to hear spoken or named from pulpits? The author did such a great job writing the story. When you listen you will understand why. They are easy to talk to and I can trust . She has a B. We also discuss Scripture about despair and respond to listener requests. I love Margot so. Sarah Stevenson.
