Love, love, love the Jump Off. Reviews

Started hiking at a time and there was 3 groups ahead of us. Be aware that thieves may be in the parking area watching as you slip your wallet into the glove box or "hide" your laptop under a blanket. The Benton-McKaye Trail and Mountains-to-Sea Trail are also great longer hikes through the park, and can give you access to the more remote southern end of the park.

Way down much easier. Individual trail maps, elevation profiles, and GPStrack best time to experience this hike is between the months of April and May because that is when the wildflowers found along the trail will be at their peak. I recommend coming prepared with snacks and lots of hydration.
