After a mile, Sanders sat down on a log to catch his breath. During its history as a commercial cave, Gregory's Cave had walkways, which were made of wood in some places, and electric lights.

After serving only six months, however, they were pardoned and personally yes

It is damp and cool inside, so you will probably The caverns, estimated to be at least 20 million to 30 million years old, are one of the newer major subterranean finds in Tennessee.

With only two sisters left, Margaret and Louisa wrote a letter to the park superintendent asking if the "visitors welcome" sign—with information about the Walker sisters—could be taken down, explaining that they were getting too old and tired to get work done on the farm and greet visitors.

The Centennial sketch stated the witch could appear as a rabbit, bear or black article reported that Smith claimed the powers of witchcraft while working near Adam's Station, chopping wood on a farm with the defendants. Sanders, owner of a nearby gas station, reported 20 years earlier he ran out of gas at night near the Red River across from the Bell Witch Cave.
