Two out of three children don't care and I don't demand that they do and the other one does what she can to wear me out running around the living room. We both debate in the hopes of winning the battle. We both blow our corks in anger at the drop of a hat. Whenever I'm in trouble, You always have a plan. Happy Father's Day, Daddy, I have a present for you. You and Betty are never going to be buddies.
