The LCC K-9 Comfort Dogs are a bridge for compassionate ministry, opening doors for conversation about faith and creating opportunities to share the mercy, compassion, presence and proclamation of Jesus Christ. Gayle said this type of training is usually hundreds of dollars, but by offering it for free, from a professional trainer that volunteers her time, they can reach more people in the community who want their animals to become certified therapy dogs. When she's out and about, people truly gravitate toward Julia, whose vest says "Please pet me," Ponsolle said. SitebuiltbyTwoRowStudio. All the dogs have their own Facebook page which describe their healing reach to many persons. Learn More - opens in a new window or tab. Download our brochure for more info.
